

Site One is Selectmen's dilemma

Site One, as it is called, for a municipal dump, is now Article 7½ for the Annual Town Meeting which begins Saturday at 1:30 in the High School gym. It will be a Special Town Meeting, within a Town Meeting, and is to start after Article Seven has been completed.

And Wilmington's selectmen are seeing problems. Some feel that they are on the horns of a dilemma. The problem, one of them, is Cost, and what will that cost do to the Tax Rate?

Because Article 7½ is by petition there has not been time to adequately prepare estimates on Capital Costs, and first year costs - the cost of putting up a fence around the 37 acres, the cost of making a road, etc. by 1976 figures. This is enough to worry a tax conscious selectman.

After the Article was accepted the Town Manager was asked to make an estimate. He guessed - that's his word - $400 thousand for the first year.

That's nearly $3 on the tax rate, enough to make a lot of people howl. There is also a problem of how much it will cost to operate the dump.

Too some people these are not problems - but to the men on the Board of Selectmen - These Are Problems.

SEE YOU AT THE TOWN MEETING: Wilmington High Schoolers, elected to town office by their peers, shown at the Selectmen's meeting Monday night. Behind are two ladies from the League of Women Voters.

Surprise visitor arrested

A North Wilmington housewife captured a housebreaker in her home yesterday. Only after the excitement had subsided though, did she learn that the man holds a black belt in Karate.

Mrs. Eloise Sevenson of Middlesex Avenue returned home unexpectedly and surprised the man in her home. It was quite obvious to her that he was a thief, but the man tried to talk his way out of the situation.

"You're making a big mistake," he kept repeating. He said that he had only come to buy a truck that was for sale.

But Mrs. Sevenson knew that she was not making a mistake. The man was coming out of her bedroom when she came in the door.

After talking briefly, the man attempted to flee across the street to the parking area at the North Wilmington shopping area. Mrs. Sevenson kept after him.

She went to Pineridge Cleaners and asked that police be called. Officer Joe Morgan responded and apprehended the man. Inspector John Harvey arrived soon thereafter.

The man was found to have personal items from the Sevenson home in his pockets and in his car.

Curiously, he had stolen some plastic place mats and a pair of Mr. Sevenson's gloves, although more valuable items were also taken.

Several items missing were not in the possession of the captured man. It turned out that he had a confederate. Both men had parked next to the shopping area, and then crossed the street to the Sevenson home. The confederate had already left when the lady returned home. Inspector Harvey said that he had a good lead on the identity of the accomplice.

Mrs. Sevenson said that the captured man had come to her house the night before, inquiring about the truck. At that time, she said she had foolishly told the man her arrival time home. She returned home early, though, on her way to pick up her husband who had been hospitalized for some time and was released yesterday afternoon.

The arrested man, a Somerville resident, was later released on bail, scheduled to appear in Woburn District on a charge of breaking and entering.

FISH Membership coffee, Sunday

The steering committee of the Wilmington Fish has invited all members to a membership coffee to be held this Sunday evening, March 14. Anyone considering becoming a member is also urged to attend.

The coffee will serve two purposes. First - it has been a championship fishing season for Wilmington. As a result of the fall recruitment campaign over 60 new volunteers have joined Fish. The coffee will be an opportunity for the steering committee to meet and thank them and for the new members to get to know the older members and for recent volunteers to become more familiar with how Fish operates.

The coffee is also an opportunity to express a heartfelt thank you to the many long-standing members of the organization for their years of unselfish service.

The event will be held at the home of Maisha Eisenberg, 437 Salem St., Wilmington. Coffee and dessert will be served from 6:30 to 7 p.m. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7.

Cadettes will babysit

Cadette Girl Scouts of Troops 402, 354 and 215 will provide babysitting at the town meeting March 13 from 1 to 5:30 p.m. for children over the age of one year.

GIRL SCOUTS: In St. Dorothy's Church, for Girl Scout Sunday services.

Holding the US Flag is Ellen Flaherty, and holding the Girl Scout flag is Pamela L'Italien.

Women's Club

Reception planned for WHS National Honor Society

The Wilmington Women's Club is planning a reception for the members of the National Honor Society of Wilmington High School. It is to be held in Fellowship Hall of the Wilmington Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. March 24.

Following the reception Barbara Larson, Go-Getter chairman for Channel 2 will introduce Hamilton Osgood, the manager of the Channel 2 Auction. Mr. Osgood will have a short program. Husbands and friends of the Woman's Club members are invited.

Tickets for the 75th Anniversary Luncheon, on April 15, will be on sale at this meeting. All reservations must be made in advance.

Dear Larz:

As outgoing president of Wilmington Youth Hockey I feel it my duty, at this time, to speak out on the upcoming election in order to clear up some misinformation that has been circulating among townspeople. I realize this is an unprecedented move; however, in light of the carnival atmosphere displayed by some in order to gain recognition, I feel I must respond.

Our organization has been active since the 1940's in the development of youth skating - speed, figure and now hockey - involving substantial numbers of our young people along with numerous volunteers, both business professionals as well as non-professionals. Persons interested in developing these young skaters have done so without fanfare, by participation in the club's activities and serving on the many committees needed to aid the club in past years and for growth and improvement in the years to come.

Up until now, candidates for elective office in WYH have first become involved in the program familiarizing themselves with its philosophies and guidelines aimed at the development of our young people, prior to making a bid for office. Our organization has always believed that nothing can replace hard work and a deep commitment to Wilmington youth as qualifications to run for an elected position. It seems that monies currently being spent for campaign promotion would better serve out children if they were channeled into the already existing 'Financial Assistance Committee' to reduce ice rental and equipment cost.

One of the major criticisms leveled at the current organization is the handling of the club's financial commitment. Extensive efforts by hard working people have enabled the club to bring its payables current. This coupled with fund raising has allowed WYH to pay off its debts and maintain an excellent payment cycle for this years' commitments. As indicated by our most recent treasurer's report, the club is projecting a break even status to close out the 1975-76 season.

In closing, I can only hope to adequately thank the number of people through whose efforts this club has managed to put together many years of enjoyment for youngsters and parents alike. Success in running WYH has been, and hopefully will remain to be, an organization run by full time businessmen dedicated to spending their spare hours as officers and members of the Youth Hockey Club.

Sincerely,
James F. Kidd, Pres.
Wilmington Youth Hockey

Dear Larz:

We (The Wilmington Knights of Columbus) would like to applaud the W.H.S. junior class for its conduct at the junior prom held at the K of C Hall Friday evening.

At a time when we are sometimes critical of teenage behavior these young adults were fantastic. From our first contact, making arrangements, decorating the hall, to the prom itself, it made us very proud to know that these are the future adults of our town and country.

Also a tip of the hat to the chaperones and all who made the prom a huge success.

Wilmington LWV open meeting

Members of the Wilmington League of Women Voters will present their study of collective bargaining and tenure in our schools at a general meeting, open to the public on Tuesday, March 16. The meeting will be held in the conference room of the Wilmington Memorial Library at 8 p.m.

As part of a State education study, general information on bargaining and tenure will be given as well as more specific information relating to the Wilmington school system.

If you have any questions, or would like to learn more about these important issues affecting education today in the town, feel welcome to attend this meeting.

An Open Letter to the Voters of Wilmington

Much has been written over the last few months relating to our solid waste problem in Wilmington, and we as your representatives feel a responsibility to you to clarify the facts.

The three of us have spent countless hours looking at sites, viewing an operational landfill, meeting at the attorney general's office, interviewing people with an expertise in the field, soliciting proposals and negotiating with the current owner of our dump and his representatives.

Because we have always tried hard to be mindful of dollars that we spend which would further add to the already heavy burden of you, the taxpayer, we were searching for an answer that would be in compliance with the law, yet at the same time be economical.

Nowhere in all of the rhetoric you have been subjected to have you seen the Price Tag that goes along with starting and maintaining a town-owned sanitary landfill. Let us be the first to tell you. You will be asked to spend up to $300,000 to make ready the site which we own, and you will have to appropriate up to $100,000 or more for an annual operational cost.

That is why we as your elected officials, acting prudently and in your best interest felt that, if possible, we would have been better off if we could have negotiated freely with the owner of our current dumping facility for an $26,000 site prep charge and an annual expenditure of $60,000.

To further compound the problem, we feel in addition that so-called Site One is probably an undesirable site because of its poor construction and over abundance of ledge. We believe that we have all learned over the years that often times the quickest solution is not always the best solution for the town.

It is your money we will be spending. Please try to attend the town meeting this Saturday afternoon in the High School gym.

Wilmington Senior Set

The Council on Aging sponsored a whist and pokeno party at the center on March 8. The door prize of a food order at a local market, donated monthly by the Wilmington Rotary Club was awarded to Mrs. Nema Miller of Wing Road.

Attendance at the whist and pokeno parties has been so good that the men who generally play cards at the center had to go to one of the senior men's homes because of the lack of space available to them at the center.

On March 11 there will be dancing lessons at the center from 1 to 4:30 p.m.; on the 15th at the regular Council on Aging meeting which is held at the center at 7 p.m. Jack Crain of the Office of Elder Affairs, Boston will serve as guest speaker. All seniors will be most welcome.

The regular town meeting will be held this Saturday (March 13) at 1:30 p.m. Seniors are urged to attend in order to support the budget for the 76-77 program.

Seniors desiring more information call the center at 657-7595.

LETTER

Dear Captain Neilson:

As the president of the Wilmington League of Women Voters, I am writing this letter for our organization in support of a sanitary landfill at Site One.

Under national positions the League supports a physical environment beneficial to life. We support the conservation and wise use of water resources, the prevention and elimination of water pollution and proper solid waste management so that waste disposal will not cause water or air pollution.

The present dump does not meet these ideals. It is in violation of many of the state board of health regulations. The state found that 1) the present dump is on a site directly adjacent to or part of a wetland area and subject to intermittent flooding, 2) adequate cover material is not available at the site 3) refuse was deposited in close proximity to surface waters 4) no provisions were made for the control of wind-blown materials and the entire area was generally untidy and poorly maintained and 5) refuse was being placed directly into ground water.

We believe that the proposed landfill will eliminate these causes of water pollution. It will operate under the jurisdiction of the Wilmington Board of Health who will be responsible to see that it complies with state requirements. Sufficient cover material is at the site for seven years of operation. A transfer station will prevent refuse materials from being blown or carried by rain runoff into our surface waters. The site is not a designated wetland and not subject to flooding. Litter control, dust control and vector control plans will be implemented.

The League would like to see our solid waste disposal problems eventually solved by cutting back the creation of solid wastes, by widespread recycling programs and by increased demand for recycled materials. Meanwhile we need a disposal operation that is lawful, Site One, as determined by a $30,000 engineering study is apparently the best suited structurally for landfill. It is owned by the town and it is reclaimable for recreation when its usefulness as a disposal area is over. Incineration or trucking out of town are too expensive. This plan therefore seems to be the best answer to our present problem of solid waste disposal in Wilmington.

Sincerely,
Cynthia R. Sullivan

School administrators well paid in Tewksbury

Tewksbury's school administrators are the highest paid in seven of 11 categories common to the area, and are among the highest paid in all but one of the rest.

Wilmington's are among the highest paid in five categories, but sit close to the bottom in four other administrative positions which the town has in common with neighboring communities.

Tewksbury School Committee member James E. Sullivan disclosed the information at a March 4 meeting of the Merrimack Valley School Committee Assn. in Wilmington.

Members include Lowell, Lawrence, Tewksbury, Billerica, Westford, Chelmsford, Dracut, Andover and Wilmington.

Sullivan said association members could consider the statistics in dealing with school administrators in the future. "Now we have it in one place and we can all study it at one time," he said.

Referring to other members of the association, Sullivan commented, "We're always getting the Tewksbury salaries thrown in our face. I see why."

Sullivan's study covered current salaries paid school executives in each of the communities belonging to the association.

The statistics collected by Sullivan showed the following according to a scale of high to low salaries.

Super-Stars clinch fifth title

The champions for four divisions have been crowned following last weekend's action in the Wilmington Recreation Basketball League.

The Super-Stars clinched their fifth straight men's crown, while the Diamonds and Lakers are the senior girls and boys titlists and the Jays in the squirt girls. Two weeks ago the Hawks solidified their hold on first place in the squirt boys sector.

The only two divisions not having their champions selected are the junior girls and boys. In the junior section the races are going down to the wire as indicated by the league standings, which may be found at the end of this story. A summary of the recent action by divisions follows:

Men's: On Wednesday, March 3 the Super-Stars topped an undermanned Big W quintet, 72 - 51 behind the scoring of Dennis Murphy (21) and Tom Beaton (20).

Jera-Lyn Builders slipped past Val's Catering on Thursday March 4 in an overtime tussle, 95 - 94 to set the stage for their showdown match with the Stars.

In Sunday's twin bill, Shoreham Plumbing clinched third place with a convincing 88 - 78 triumph over Val's while Dennis Murphy swished a free throw with no time remaining in regulation play to lead the Super-Stars past Jera-Lyn, 76 - 75.

Seniors: The Diamonds took advantage of cold shooting of the favorite Rubys and went on to defeat Coach Burke's crew, 38 - 28. Helen Bailey tossed in 15 and Debbie Olson 10 for the Diamonds, while Debbie Best tallied 12 for the Rubys.

The Lakers upended the Celtics, 53 - 46 to capture the boys' crown in the second half of last Saturday night's senior finale. Dave Carrozza poured in 29 points and Bob Woods 12 to lead Coach Peter George's quintet to its upset win over Paul Krutler's squad. Paul Burke tossed in 18 for the Celtics while Rich Medicus added 18.

Juniors: In the girls section, the Minks eliminated the Fawns from playoff competition with a 28 - 26 triumph over Coach Simmons' club to highlight play last Saturday morning at the high school gym.

Karate demonstration

A free demonstration of various aspects of karate will be presented Friday, March 12 at 7 p.m. at Northeast Sports located on Rt. 62 at the North Reading Shopping Center. The public is invited.

The demonstration, geared toward the beginner, will cover the self defense, fitness, and competitive sport aspects of the Shotokan style of karate.

Susan Rowe tossed in 10 and Brenda Baker seven for the Minks. Michele Forest took game high scoring honors hitting for 12 points for the Foxes.

In other action, the Fawns tipped the Pandas, 28 - 23 in overtime and the Bunnies edged the Deers, 21 - 20. Nancy Moran connected on a free throw with only six seconds left in regulation time to give the Fawns an extra period and it proved to be what they needed as the orange squad went on to outscore the Pandas 5 - 0 in the extra session. Karen Andres tossed in the winning basket with only 19 seconds left to play to provide the Bunnies with their margin of victory.

Last Saturday afternoon the Bulls and Tigers both won to create a traffic jam in the boys standings. In Sunday's quarter of games, the Bears belted the Colts, 33 - 22; the Cougars blasted the Bulls, 42 - 27 behind Dave Driscoll's 22 points; the Beavers routed the Lions, 54 - 27 and the Broncos nipped the Elks, 32 - 30.

Spirits: The Jays won twice to capture the girls title and the Hawks rolled to their ninth straight win in the boys sector to highlight play in the 9 - 10 year old division.

The Jays toppled the Wrens, 15 - 8 last Wednesday and then had to come back on Thursday to nip the Doves in overtime, 22 - 20. Lisa Rudnicki was the star in the Jays' conquest of the Wrens tossing in five points, while Alice Sullivan hooped 12 in the overtime tilt with the Doves. Todd Driscoll tallied 20 points to lead the first place Hawks, while Eddie Olshaw scored 18 for the Eagles.

In the only other boys' game, the Gulls blasted the Ravens, 22 - 6 with Steve Aellette leading the way with 11 points.

Youth weightlifting at Woburn Y

A youth weightlifting program will be offered at the North Suburban YMCA for grades 7 - 10. The program will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and will consist of both conditioning and body-building exercises.

Charts will be kept on all participants, where they will be able to check their progress from week to week. The instructor supervising the program will be Dom Santoro, a member of the physical fitness staff at the YMCA.

Fitch named captain

The promising 1976-77 Wilmington High School hockey squad will be led by new captain - rightwinger Gordie Fitch.

The junior puckster's final 1975-76 statistics were quite impressive. He finished with 13 goals and nine assists, giving him 23 goals and 26 helpers for his first two varsity seasons.

"This season's team was a surprising underdog in which our record was 12-4-2. We would have done better if we were not as injury plagued," said Gordie. "Our sophomores, explained Fitch excelled in their first year's experience and are now seasoned veterans."

"I am looking forward to another excellent season. We have a great goalie, Paul Crescetelli and many returning varsity letterman, therefore a vast quantity of experience," said Gordie.

Fitch hopes to lead his team to success next year in order to contend for the league championship and a state berth.

Future plans in store for next year's captain include attending a four year college.

Wilmington youth hockey highlights

B I's

Wilmington B I's won three more over the weekend defeating Westford, Tyngsboro and Nashua.

On Saturday Westford provided the competition with two real seat squirmers as the Wildcats had to come from behind in the last three minutes to preserve their undefeated streak in Wilmington.

Jeff Stouffer started things off with assists to Bob Maglionzi and George Boudreau early in the first period. Westford had two unanswered goals until Bill Robinson let the lamp on a pass from Chuck McNeil.

Westford scored again at the 9:34 mark of the second period and was making the 3-2 lead hold up.

With 2:04 remaining in the game Frank Newark tied the score with John Cushing and Bill Robinson assisting. Bill Robinson provided the game winner with a blast from the point with Ted Moran and Frank Newark providing the hustle in the corners.

Sunday morning the Wildcats whitewashed Tyngsboro by a 9-0 score. Jeff Stouffer was the only double scorer while Chuck McNeil, Ted Moran and Bill Robinson each had two assists. With the nine goals scored by eight different players the Pee Wees put on a good display of how team hockey should be played.

Sunday afternoon in Tyngsboro, Nashua provided the opposition with the Wilmington boys coming out on top 2-0. Goal tenders Bill Redler and Jeff Lux posted their second shut out of the weekend.

Bill Robinson provided the offensive punch on the first goal with Chuck McNeil and Daryl MacDonald doing the table setting.

Chuck McNeil put the game away on an unassisted tally midway through the final period.

The B I's have qualified for the state finals round robin and will compete in Natick this weekend. Friday at 5:00 Springfield is the opposition with Weymouth at 9:40 a.m. and Burlington at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday Mike Intramural.

In Mike Intramural action, the Gulls defeated the Blazers 2-1. Scoring for the Gulls were Scotty Magford and Steve Cairni with assists going to Steve Cairni and Andy Arena.

The lone score for the Blazers was an unassisted goal by Dante DeMarco.

Both goalies, Scotty Fuller (Blazers) and Glen Ford (Gulls), had great games with Scotty making outstanding saves on several difficult scoring attempts off Gulls' sticks.

Squirts

The Braves won over the Aces 8-0 last weekend. The scoring for the Braves follows:

Jay Hanafin assisted by Jeff Marshall; Charlie Athanasia scored twice unassisted and once with Tom Ross' assistance; Steve Raso from Carl Beatrice, Tom McHugh assisted by Dan Ugolini; Dean Athanasia was assisted by Steve Raso and Eric Marshall with Tom Ross assisting.

Paul Cazzi and Steve Raso played a good game for the Braves and Ned Whitney did a great job in the Ace net. Ace players Martin Sarette and Dave Sullivan also played an all-around game.

In the other squirt game, the Bears won over the Americans 4-1. Brian Tully scored the first Bear goal assisted by Tom O'Connor and Mike Thibeau. Warren Newhouse scored goal number two with the assistance of Cliff Jones and Steve Stokes. Jerry O'Reilly scored next, unassisted and Steve Stokes scored the last goal with Jerry O'Reilly assisting.

Dave Deming did a fine job in net and there was good team effort from all the Bears.

Bill Barrett scored the goal for the American team with the assistance of his brother, Jay. Darren Colarusso and Steve DeMarco played a good defensive game.

Bantam A

For the second time this season, Wilmington dropped a 3-2 game to a powerful Cambridge club last Thursday. Scoring twice in the first period, it appeared for a while Wilmington finally had Cambridge's number.

At the three minute mark in the first period, Brian Bulger dug the puck out of the left corner and fed Rich Robinson at the left face-off circle. Rich then slid it nicely to Tim McCann breaking down the right side. Tim put it in the open side for the first score.

Thirty seconds later, Dave Ballou won a face-off outside the blue line and got it to Matt Kmon who broke around the defense to the right and beat the goaltender with a lot shot to the far side.

Cambridge got one goal back three minutes into the second period and six penalties to Wilmington in the third period enabled them to come from behind for the win. Worthy of mention is the outstanding goaltending of Dave Gordon and Rick Ballou which kept the score down.

In a non-league game March 7 at Lowell, Melrose, recently returned from Montreal, demonstrated why they were invited to participate in a Canadian tournament, when they easily defeated Wilmington 6-1. Scoring for Wilmington were Robinson from Bulger.

Next league game: Thursday, March 11 at 5:20 p.m. vs Reading.

Pee Wee A

The Pee Wee A's locked up first place in the Tyngsboro League by defeating second place Bedford 3-2 in a squeaker last Sunday.

Bedford jumped to a first period lead of 2-0. Wilmington came back with three goals in the second period. Peter Orlando from Mike Stokes, followed by Rick Zambardi unassisted following two saves by Bedford's goalie on shots by Rick and Mike Stokes.

The game winner went to Walter Surrette assisted by David Midd and Mark Boudreau. Stretch Storer played superb goal in the last two periods stopping several excellent scoring attempts including a clean breakaway by two Bedford players.

The next game at Wilmington, March 17 with league leading Stoneham providing the opposition.

Matarese, Cushing spark Recs

The Wilmington girls hockey team parlayed hot goal tending on the part of Maureen Matarese and the scoring touch of Cheryl Cushing to a productive weekend as the Miceli/Recs shutout Brookline on Saturday tied Tewksbury 1-1 Sunday. The girls have been on a tear lately winning four and tying two in their six recent outings to bring their overall season record to 8-16-4.

Last Thursday night the Recs tied Woburn 3-3 in a non-league encounter at the Burlington Ice Palace. Cheryl Cushing tallied all three goals, while assists were garnered by Susan Dec, Diane Pannfry, Laura Miller, Janet Zambenardi, Debbie Reinhart and Lisa Pellerin. Senior net minder Cathy Bristol turned in another brilliant performance in the Wilmington nets to hold off the Woburn attack.

In Saturday afternoon's whitewash of Brookline it was the stout goal tending of Maureen Matarese which paced the Recs to their first shutout since February of 1975. Cushing tallied three times and Pellerin once to provide all of the goals the Recs would need as the team put forth a tremendous effort in its rubber match with the Chiefs.

Traveling to Tyngsboro on Sunday afternoon the girls were a bit sluggish but still managed to outshoot the Tewksbury Tacks, 21-14, but they ran into a hot goal tender by the name of Tracey Audette, who continues to shine for the Tacks.

Cheryl Cushing gave the Recs a 1-0 lead at 7:21 of the opening frame as she tallied her 18th MVGHL goal on a beautiful solo effort.

The almost forgotten art of growing carnations

A few years ago there were hundreds of greenhouses in Middlesex County in which carnations were grown for the market. There was a Carnation Growers Association, with 87 active members.

The price of fuel oil, for heating the greenhouses, and the imported flowers (by air) from South America have conspired to put many of the greenhouses out of business. There are now eight or nine members in the Carnation Growers Association, one of them is Sigfrid Olson of Lowell Street, Wilmington. Mr. Olson grows a very superior type of carnation, and so far has managed to stay in business.

SIGFRID OLSON (Center): With Prof. Gustav Melquist of the University of Connecticut, plant scientist, and (right) Raymond Given of Burlington, former carnation grower, now a florist.

Girl Scouts' birthday

The week of March 7 - 13 marks the 64th birthday of Girl Scouting in the United States. Girl Scout week is a time when members of the organization and of the community are reminded of how Girl Scouting is so widespread.

Girl Scouting is the largest voluntary organization for girls in the world. It links girls worldwide in 90 countries through the World Association of Girl Guides

In the United States, there are approximately 3,533,000 girl members. That's one out of every seven girls from age six through 17.

There are 585,000 adult members, both women and men, who serve as volunteer leaders and resource people, such as troop organizers and consultants, neighborhood publicity people, troop committee members, and board committee members. About 3,000 professional staff members service Girl Scouting with experience in child development, adult education, human relations, ecology, outdoor education, and administration.

Girls from grades one through three may join Brownie Scouts. Juniors are in grades four through six. Cadettes grades seven through nine and seniors grades nine through 12.

The problems at Gronemeyer's

The Gronemeyer property, at land. The family has the old Shawsheen Avenue bridge adjacent to their property, except for the 100 plus linear feet where the driveway is, and which the state took. No automobiles can get on the property now, except by going through that land, which the state has now given to the town, and which the town now wants to return to the Gronemeyer family - but with conditions.

Selectman James Banda, an attorney, has been the family attorney for some time, and the Town Crier reported, wrongly, last week that Atty. Banda had given the family advice on their questions about the property. A correct way to report that would be to say that Selectman Banda spoke with the family, not Attorney Banda.

But there are several complications. One is that the town, apparently, has been billing the family for taxes for that driveway area, just as though the state did not take it by eminent domain, and the Gronemeyer family has been paying those taxes. At least, so they told the Planning Board Tuesday evening.

In addition, in the proposed return - (Article 18) the Selectmen are asking that, before the land is returned, there be "an easement" for utilities retained by the town. This is because the sewer is planned to go through the land. The planned utility is the sewer main, but other utilities could go through, in the future.

To someone like Arthur Harding of the Planning Board, who is a Civil Engineer, this makes sense. To others, including the Gronemeyer family, that raises questions as to what utility might be put through and what else can happen.

The Planning Board had already voted, before Tuesday, to recommend Disapproval of Article 18. Tuesday night they made no change in their recommendation.

Site One is an old gravel pit

Wilmington voters will perhaps argue over an hour, perhaps two hours, in Article 7½ during the Town Meeting about putting a town dump down near the Woburn line. It is possible that there will be Woburn residents present, seeking a chance to speak. Such was the experience, last year, when the dump site was turned down by the voters, decisively.

The 37 acre tract of land is mostly rock, cleared of gravel, but there are places where some gravel does exist.

About 15 years ago, when Route 128 was being widened, there was a need for large amounts of gravel, and some Woburn residents, saying that they owned the area, took out thousands of yards of gravel, which were trucked to Route 128.

Twenty or thirty trucks were employed, all day long for over a week. Wilmington policemen were hired, to stop auto traffic and thus not force the trucks to stop. It was quite an operation.

Since then it has become clear that much of the gravel was owned by the Town of Wilmington. The area was an old real estate development, dating back to the time of the Spanish American war, and most of the house lots had long been the property of the town - taken for taxes. Only half a dozen lots belonged to the men who conducted the gravel operations

YES, THERE IS GRAVEL: But beneath it is solid ledge, as shown in this picture. The gravel merchants of 15 years ago took all they could, from the area.
